ELECTING A PRESIDENT

Elected by House In Exciting 1824 Fight.

Adams

J. Q. ADAMS.

S there were no recognized political parties this year, election became a personal contest, which resulted as follows: Andrew Jackson, 99; John Quincy Adams, 84; William H. Crawford, 41; Henry Clay, 37. No one having received a majority, the house of representatives elected Adams. Thirteen states voted for him. John C. Calhoun was generally supported for vice president and was elected.

This is the first year where the popular vote is on record. That year it was: Jackson, 155,872; Adams, 105,321; Crawford 44,-282; Clay, 46,587. It is thus noted that, while Jackson recoived 50,000 more votes than Adams, yet he was defeated.
